

A Hint of Masculine Mint

The luxury French jeweler Cartier recently won the Perfumes, Cosmetics and Design (PCD) Award held in Paris, for its Roadster fragrance.

housed in a racy, aerodynamically shaped bottle and cap borrowed from the well-known design of the crown of its luxury watches (which in turn were inspired by automobiles). With notes of Calabrian bergamot, icy mint, vanilla, patchouli and vetiver, this masculine fragrance is bound to cook up a fabulous evening. ($30-$105).
